

EMPOWERING STUDENTS

20 MINUTES AT A TIME

SPEND A YEAR MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF CHILDREN

Colorado Reading Corps tutors help students build literacy skills to increase their reading proficiency. Tutors support each student's classroom instruction by using evidence-based reading interventions in one-on-one sessions with students who are reading below grade level. Tutors also have the opportunity to volunteer in the community and complete service projects. Colorado Reading Corps tutors serve full-time, Monday through Friday, from August 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017.

We seek passionate and dedicated individuals to serve as Colorado Reading Corps tutors in the 2016–2017 school year.

WHAT WE'LL ASK OF YOU:

Commit to 11 months

Schools and students rely on Colorado Reading Corps tutors for the whole school year – it is important to commit to the full year, as we have no substitutes or replacements for tutors. Your term of service will run from August 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017.

Build relationships in a school setting

By providing consistent, one-on-one support in the classroom, Colorado Reading Corps tutors help kindergarten through third-grade students build the literacy skills they need for life-long success.

Participate in professional training

Tutors participate in evidence-based training designed by respected literacy experts and educators, which is one of the many resources that makes Colorado Reading Corps so powerful.
